

MARKET

7-3-1807 LG

On Monday last, at Long Preston Fair, in Yorkshire, cattle sold at reduced prices; such lean ones as would have fetched sixteen pounds, two years ago, were sold for eleven pounds; fat ones in proportion. Calvers of an inferior sort could not be sold.

12-3-1814 LG

Tuesday se'night was Long Preston Fair — the show of lean beasts and calvers was large, and though buyers were numerous, a great part remained on hand. Fat cattle went off at high prices.

Long Preston annual hiring and lean stock fair. This fair took place on Tuesday last under very favourable weather. The early trains brought hundreds of men and boys from all parts of this and the adjacent counties. Youths from 15 to 18 years of age were in great request. Wages ruled high being from £12 to £21 a year. Cows were a slender show perhaps owing to the numbers brought on the previous day. Lean stock was also below the average in quantity. Trade was brisk good beasts ranging from £15 to £16.10s and secondary from £12 to £14.10s per head.
